For the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses, irregularities and derangements, giving rise to frequent headaches, back-ache, dragging-down pain or distress in lower abdominal or pelvic region, accompanied, ofttimes, with a debilitating, pelvic, catarrhal drain and kindred symptoms of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy. It is equally effective in curing painful periods, in giving strength to nursing mothers and in preparing the system of the expectant mother for baby's coming thus rendering childbirth safe and comparatively painless. The Favorite Prescription's is a most potent, strengthening tonic to the general system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. It is also a soothing and invigorating nervine and cures nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea or St. Vitus's dance, and distinctly feminine in particular. The Ray. Oscar Haywood, pastor of the Collegiste Baptist Ohurch of the Covenant, New York, believes that if the Apostle Paul were alive today he would be a champion of woman's suffrage. He spoke in his sermon last night of the "Tragedy of feminine genius masquerading under masculine names in bookstores and printshops that its literary product may find a market.

"A woman, for instance, is guilty of sacrilege if she enters a church without the borden of twentieth century headgear," said the preacher. 'She knocks in vain at the doors of colleges," Dr. Haywood continued. "The girl of to lay is born into a world impossible to her grandmother—but the next generation will see the last link in the chain of woman's bondage broken, and she will be politically free. The tug Blanca, which has arrived at Bluefields, Nicaragus, from Greytown briogs news of the first important battle f the revolution. General Chamorro's forces fought an engagement on Friday with 1 000 of President Zelaya's troops at a point below Boca San Carlos, on the san Juan river. The revolutionists won a decisive victory, 100 of the government troops being rilled and 800 wounded. General Cha-morro's loses were slight. The insurgents captured two Krupp siege guns and 400

The steamer Yulu, belonging to the Emery Company, also has reached Blue-fields with the details of the capture by the revolutionists of Cape Gracias Dios. This port was easily taken, no more than five or six men being killed and a small number wounded. This gives the revolutionists control of the entire Atlantic coast.
